Reigniting Youth and Children's Ministry in the SRMC

Having recognized the impact, the pandemic has had on congregations and auxiliaries, the Southern Regional Mission Council has embarked on pumping energy into the Youth and Children's ministry in the region. Activities and developments of the ministry came to a screeching halt in many congregations which has impacted the reach to the children and young people. However, ministry leaders and teachers are being encouraged and engaged to reignite the ministry. This culminated in the region's hosting of Youth Rally and Kids Quake.

Youth Rally was held on October 29, 2022, at Ridgemount United Church under the theme "Whom Shall I Fear?" 70 individuals were in attendance, 58 of whom were young people. 14 congregations were represented with 10 bringing musical or dance items. The young people from New Broughton United Church gave an impromptu but lovely rendition of Jireh by Maverick City. This particular fellowship was reactivated earlier this year. Youth from Davyton United also brought sweet harmony. Guest artiste David Sutton wrapped up the event in a neat bow.

The region's Kids Quake was held on November 19, 2022, also at Ridgemount United, under the theme "Reconnect, Reignite and Ready!" 14 Congregations were represented with 168 children and 74 adults in attendance. Children participated in Dance, Music, Dub, Public Speaking, Choral Speaking, and Poster competitions. Presentations were made to congregations including Kilmarnock United Church which was noted to have participated in the event for the first time. The aged three to 7 children from Grove Town were awarded first place in the Small Group Music category. Grove Town is one church school that was reactivated this year as well. The top three overall spots went to Bryce, Ridgemount and Baillieston respectfully.

The children and youth hold the future of the Church in their hands. These two events bring hope for the reinforcing, strengthening and impact of the ministry.

Caribbean Prophet interrogates Ashley Smith's role in shaping the post-independence theological discourse in Jamaica and the Caribbean through his anti-imperial Afro-centric interpretation to the reading of scriptures, his understanding of political, cultural and economic policies, and how the church's ministry and mission must demonstrate preferential option for persons who live on the margins of unjust structures in society.

The Official Renaming of the Prospect Youth Centre to Olive Miller Memorial Building

Close to eighty people gathered on Monday, November 14, 2022, at the Prospect Youth Centre to celebrate its renaming to 'Olive Miller Memorial Building'. The initiative came from the Cayman Islands Girls' Brigade to honor its founder, former President, and Patron. Those present included Girls' Brigade Companies from every corner of the Island, family members of the late Ms. Olive, members of the clergy, the Cayman United Church Corporation, and others.

In her introductory remarks, Girls' Brigade (GB) President, Mrs. Marisa Crawford, highlighted the steps - spanning three years due to the pandemic - leading to the momentous occasion. GB National Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Yvette Noble-Bloomfield, and George Town Chaplain, Rev. L. Christopher Mason offered the Prayers. The Girls and Officers sang 'This is GB'. The song was written by Mrs. Miller for the occasion of the 65th Anniversary of the Cayman Islands Girls' Brigade which was celebrated in November 2011.

Tribute to Mrs. Olive Miller

Mrs. Olive Miller, OBE, MBE, JP, founded The Girls' Brigade in the Cayman Islands in November 1946. Mrs. Miller at that time was the Organizer of the Girls' Guildry in Jamaica and during a visit to the Cayman Islands, she began the process that started Girls Guildry companies (now The Girls' Brigade) in each of the five districts in Grand Cayman. She selected and trained local Captains and leaders for each company so that when she returned to Jamaica they could carry on the work. However, it was not long before Mrs. Miller came to make Cayman her home.

In 1968, when the Girls' Guildry from Scotland amalgamated with The Girls Life Brigade from England, and the Girls' Brigade of Ireland to form the Girls' Brigade, Mrs. Miller took a contingent from Cayman to the meetings in London, England.

She was involved in drafting the Constitution and was elected as an International Vice President for five years. Mrs. Miller was re-elected for two more terms giving her capacity for fifteen (15) years. This ensured that the Cayman Islands Girls' Brigade had a voice at the International Girls' Brigade table.

Mrs. Miller was re-elected for two more terms giving her capacity for fifteen (15) years. This ensured that the Cayman Islands Girls' Brigade had a voice at the International Girls' Brigade table.

In 1968, Mrs. Miller led the charge in ensuring that the Cayman Islands Girls' Brigade formed a National Council, with a Constitution to provide support and leadership for the local Girls' Brigade companies. The second International Conference took place in New Zealand in 1973 and Mrs. Miller took Officers and girls to the Conference. She always insisted that girls and young officers participated in all international Conferences and camps, to train them for leadership in the Girls' Brigade.

In 1978 Cayman hosted the third International Conference and Mrs. Miller led the preparations. 67 delegates representing 30 countries attended and it was a great success. In 1996 during the celebrations of 50 years of the Girls' Brigade in the Cayman Islands, she opened the Savannah Girls' Brigade company.

the steadfast leadership, work, and support of Mrs. Miller to the Cayman Islands Girls' Brigade. She was well-known and respected locally and internationally. Mrs. Miller was the President of the Cayman Islands Girls' Brigade for many years, and when she relinquished this role, she became its Patron until her death in May 2020. She never wavered in her commitment to The Girls' Brigade.

(Rev. Rohan Forrester – Chair of Council, family members of Mrs. Olive Miller, Mrs. Iva Good - GB Patron and Mr. Bryan Bothwell – Cayman United Church Corporation, following the ribbon cutting)

Mrs. Miller was a devout Christian, and this was reflected in everything that she did. Mrs. Miller remained very active in the Girls' Brigade her entire life. Hundreds if not thousands of women and girls and their families were positively impacted by

The young and the not-so-young gathered on Friday, November 11, 2022, for an evening of fellowship and entertainment at the Church Hall of Elmslie Memorial United Church. Youth Minister of the Elmslie Charge, Mr. Roy McGregor, envisioned the event years ago as a way of helping the Congregation's children and youth to be immersed more in their Caymanian culture and heritage.

The programme included performances by the Elmslie Dance Ministry, the Cayman Islands Folk Singers, the Radiance Maypole Dancers, and the Cayman Islands National Dance Company. During the intermission, Cayman's favorite dishes and desserts were on sale.

Jesus – Our Soon- Coming

We tend to think of Advent as a time of preparation for Christmas. And it is. However, Advent is also a reminder of Christ's promise to come again. This second coming is a time of great anticipation for most believers in Jesus. It is what we live for.

- If we are living for Christ's Second Coming, what preparations are we making?

- How do we help others prepare?
